Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday’s Gospel, Lk 5:1-11

6th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:

Do you have enough? Many of us come from a nation of material abundance. We have all the things we could possibly need not only to survive, but to thrive - food, shelter, mental ability, income, access to medical care. Most people in human history lived with far less than we. So why are we so dissatisfied? Some Christians can be drawn to the “prosperity Gospel.” This is the idea that following God will bring us material abundance in this life. That surely seems to be the story of today’s Gospel! Peter and his friends chose - with some faith - to put out their nets a final time at Jesus’ command. "They caught a great number of fish and their nets were tearing. They signaled to their partners in the other boat to come to help them. They came and filled both boats so that they were in danger of sinking." What gift! What abundance! What prosperity! Peter and his friends caught more fish than they’d ever seen. Yet what is their response to this material abundance, this gift from God? They leave it behind. "When they brought their boats to the shore, they left everything and followed him." Praying for God to meet our physical, material needs is not a bad thing! Jesus himself includes "give us this day our daily bread" in the prayer he teaches his disciples. The question is, how do we respond when our prayers are answered? Do we thank God briefly, or perhaps ignore Him completely and move on with our lives? Or do we respond as Peter did? "God? You showed up in an area that has no bearing on my eternal salvation. You gave me a gift I didn't even really need. You love me! You really do love me." Is our gratitude only surface level? Or do we allow ourselves, like Peter did, to respond with wonder, awe, and deeper discipleship?

Question of the Week:

When have you felt inadequate to a task or role you were given or thought it would be too hard for you? How did you respond?

Dear Parishioners,

We come to that “down time” on the calendar. It’s “Ordinary Time” in church—speak, nothing too exciting going on except the privilege to live our faith every day! Football is done. Pitchers and Catchers haven’t reported yet. College basketball hasn’t reached its peak. In spite of a balmy week and the Groundhog’s prediction, it’s still winter. What to do? One suggestion we posted on our message board was to read a bit, try a genre that’s different or not your favorite. But here I offer a different challenge. Take a good, honest look at your spiritual life. There are any number of ways to do this. A thorough examination of conscience is a good start. Many adults tell me they have difficulty with this, going beyond the commandments, finding ways to access their spiritual lives. As we heard from St. Paul last week, we have to mature in spiritual life like we have in our bodies and in our aging process. But that’s not so easy, especially for Catholics who tend to believe that what we learned in childhood is good enough. One suggestions is to start with a good text of the New Testament, it’s a good place to begin. We recently heard our call to be part of the Body of Christ. Do we appreciate our unique gifts? Do we use them for the good of the whole? Do we foster a connection with others in the Body of Christ and in the world, especially people with different outlooks, different gifts, and different spirits? How tolerant are we? How embracing are we? How willing are we to be part of a community of faith? Or, can we meditate on that Hymn of Love we enjoyed last week...Love is God...and love is our call. And Paul really challenges us to “bear all things, hope all things, endure all things...” in love. As we approach Valentine’s Day we could reflect not just on the blessing of romantic love or even family love, but the Christian self-giving that the Scriptures would proclaim is the “highest” call of love. When are we at our best? What stops us from being loving? This week, 1 Corinthians gives us the basic Creed of our faith, the dying and rising of Jesus. How much time could you spend appreciating the death of Jesus just for you, for your sins, for your salvation? How much energy can you give to the New Life He offers you by His rising... and yours! What does this mean, to believe and to live the Truth of Jesus in your own life, in our community, in our time? There, have I given you enough to do this week? Never ever stop being a person of prayer, reflection, growth in Christ. That’s really when we subject ourselves to Nothingness. Thankfully, we have much more to do!

WORLD MARRIAGE DAY

Because of its proximity to Valentine’s Day, this Sunday has become know as “World Marriage Day.” In our time, it is a good thing anytime to reaffirm the gift, value, blessing, and grace of Marriage, especially in our understanding of its Sacramental nature. Congratulations to all of you who live the Sacrament of Marriage and enjoy the love of spouse and family. Maybe it’s not perfect (yet), but believe that you are really a three-some in your relationship, with the Lord at your side always. Believe that you are a sign of love and grace and unity to others. Believe that the Lord has chosen your loving commitment as a Sign of His Love for all of us. Believe that the best is yet to come! From newlyweds to those who have lived the gift of Marriage for decades, enjoy this World Marriage Day as a reminder that many of us look to your example with great gratitude. God bless you.

And now, to make you smile, a wag once said, no wonder diamonds have been chosen as a symbol of love and marriage. They are, after all, the hardest thing in the world.

FROM AN ARTICLE ENTITLED, Suffering Children: Do Not Despise These Little Ones.”

“I love having kids at Mass. I love it when they are bored and pay no attention and squirm. I love it when they are distracted. They are being soaked in the Mass. They hear the words and feel the reverence. Sometimes people complain, but I have no patience for it. For one thing, they were once little kids at Mass. For another, if there are not little kids at Mass, pretty soon there won’t be any Masses. I remember that I had my run as the dad of little kids squirming at Mass. And now it’s someone else’s turn. How good and holy that is, that there are still little kids under the seats, paying no attention whatsoever. But they will.”

SCOUT SUNDAY

Today we welcome Boy Scout Troop 199 as they celebrate Scout Sunday with us. The Scouting program continues to help each and form children, young men and women in the values that are important to our society and largely consistent with our faith. Let us encourage them this day and in their meetings and activities as they strive to grow into contributing members of our community and society.
