Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday’s Gospel, Jn 20:19-23

Pentecost Sunday - Cycle A

Gospel Summary:

"Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, 'Peace be with you.' Then, he said it again. And then, "he breathed on them and said to them, 'Receive the Holy Spirit.'” Jesus brings peace, and he brings the Holy Spirit. Peace, in fact, is one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit. Today, on this feast of Pentecost, we remember the dramatic outpouring of the Holy Spirit that came upon those first apostles and the peace that came along with it. But we do more than remember. We also celebrate the presence of this same Spirit in our midst. Through the sacrament of baptism, every Christian receives the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit in his or her soul. Thus, the gift of peace is already ours! The question is whether or not we have really begun to appreciate and utilize this most precious gift. Like the apostles who had locked themselves up "for fear of the Jews," we too are capable of imprisoning ourselves in our own anxieties. We fret and worry about the future, about our sufferings or our disappointments, and too often let these concerns stifle the true peace that Jesus offers us. But the Church today urges us to rejoice and to step out in faith like the apostles who left their fears behind them. Peace not only alleviates our fears, it also frees us to live our faith to the fullest, to have the courage to take risks, and to leave our comfort zone for the sake of the Gospel. This is what we are called and, not only that, empowered to do. Anything less is a kind of spiritual poverty we bring upon ourselves. God has given us the gift of himself, present and available in every moment, every place, and every situation. May we recognize this most wonderful gift and give thanks with grateful hearts.

Question of the Week:

What important work does Jesus ask of you at the time in your life? How would Jesus want you to treat your family and friends this week?

PENTECOST
The Christian holiday of Pentecost is celebrated 50 days from Easter Sunday, counting inclusive of Easter Sunday itself, i.e. 49 days or 7 weeks after Easter Sunday. Therefore it always occurs on a Sunday. It is also the tenth day after Ascension Thursday, which itself is 40 days from Easter, counting inclusive of Easter Sunday itself. The Christian Pentecost is based on the New Testament, where it refers to the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and other followers of Jesus Christ, as described in the Acts of the Apostles 2:1–31. According to Luke 22:12–13, the descent of the Holy Spirit occurred while the Apostles were celebrating the Jewish day of Shavuot (Hebrew: שבעות, “Weeks”), the Feast of Weeks, a prominent feast in the calendar of ancient Israel celebrating the giving of the Law to Moses at Sinai. Subsequently, “Pentecost” may refer to the Pentecost of the New Testament and Shavuot of the Old Testament. Shavuot is a significant event shared by Jews and Christians but Christians do not commonly celebrate it as a separate holiday. In the Christian liturgical year, Pentecost became a feast commemorating what is described by some Christians as the “Birthday of the Church”.

Dear Parishioners,

St. Paul’s Letter to the Romans is a great and unique letter. It is the only letter he writes to a community that he has not yet experienced. Most of his letters are written to places he has been, or, in fact, to places where he was instrumental in founding - beginning - the Christian Church. In these letters, he is often responding to things he has heard about since moving on from that place. Sometimes, he offers encouragement, sometimes correction, sometimes, topical spiritual advice. With the letter to Romans, it is more like he is “paving the way,” preparing the people there for his arrival. He tries to inform the Church of Rome, its good people, who it is that’s coming to visit. He share something of his theology, his spirit, his hope, and his dreams. In the midst of this text, in Chapter 8, Paul offers one of the more thorough “theologies” of the Holy Spirit that we have in the Scriptures. Jesus mentions the Holy Spirit in quite a few places. The Hebrew Scriptures and other New Testament texts make reference to the Holy Spirit. But this is a more developed explanation of the power and working of the Spirit in the life of Christians in the world. It would make good reading this week of Pentecost. The Greek work for “spirit” is “pneuma,” the word for breath. The study of the Holy Spirit is technically called “Pneumatology.” So I ask you, what is your “pneumatology?” How is it that you would express what the Holy Spirit has been active in your life? How has the Spirit inspired you? Paul would say that we do nothing for good without the Holy Spirit. Have you thanked the Lord, given credit to the Spirit, or shared your own conviction that the Holy Spirit is with you as you live your life and your faith? Maybe it’s a good time to renew your Pneumatology, to express it, or expand upon it.

PENTECOST

Today is the Feast of Pentecost, the “birth” of the Church. With today’s liturgy, we close the Easter season, our fifty day celebration of the Lord’s Resurrection and New Life. Let us rejoice in the gift of the Holy Spirit, our commissioning to be the community of disciples who carry on the mission of Jesus “until the end of time.”

ORDINARY TIME

Tomorrow the Church returns to “Ordinary Time.” From now until Advent, we walk with the Lord through the mysteries of life and Eternal Life. Sunday by Sunday, we celebrate His Presence among us in Word, Sacrament, and the Gathering of the Baptized. We walk with the Lord; the Lord walks with us.

This year is “Year A” in the Sunday cycle of readings, which means we will mostly be nourished by the Gospel of Matthew.

It is “Year I” for weekday readings, for those who attend daily Mass.

For the next two Sundays, we will still celebrate two major feasts - the feast of the Holy Trinity and the Feast of Corpus Christi, before we have an “Ordinary Sunday.”

THE FEAST OF ST. BONIFACE

Tomorrow, Monday, June 5, is the Feast of St. Boniface. Given our Benedictine heritage, it is a good day to celebrate one of the main figures of their tradition, a great leader and bishop of the 8th century Church in Germany.

ORDINATIONS TO PRIESTHOOD

This Friday, June 9, at 7 pm at St. Peter Cathedral, Bishop Persico will ordain three priests to the service of the Church. Among them will be Deacon, soon Fr. David Whiteford, who spent a portion of this preparation for priestly ministry here at Queen of the World. Fr. David will have a Mass of Thanksgiving next Sunday, June 11 at St. Boniface Church, Erie at 10:30 am. You are welcome to attend the Ordination and/or Mass of Thanksgiving. In particular, if it has been a while since you attended an Ordination, or if there are young people in your family that you may want to share this special ceremony with, please make the journey.

On Sunday, June 18, Fr. David will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving here at Queen of the World at 10 am with a reception to follow. Please join us to offer him our prayerful best wishes as he begins his priestly ministry.

FR. JEFF OUT OF TOWN

Monday through Thursday this week, Fr. Jeff will be out of town. There will be no daily Masses on these days at Queen of the World. Join us, if you wish, for our Scripture and Communion Service at 7 am, or join our neighbors at Sacred Heart for 6:15 am Mass, St. Mary’s Church for 8:30 am Mass, or St. Boniface Church, Kersey for 7:15 am Mass.

O ANONYMOUS CALLER

Receiving anonymous messages in which people express their opinion doesn’t help much. Most of what is shared deserves further conversation. Otherwise the message, and the call, is pointless. Be willing to take ownership of your message and your point of view, please.

WOMEN’S CURSILLO

A Women’s Cursillo will be held here in St. Marys at ECCHS the weekend of June 15-18. What a great time to attend right here in Elk County. For more information / to sign up, please call Rob & DeeDee Wortman at 335-6135.
