Bless all fathers in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance. We ask all this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday’s Gospel, Jn 16:12-15

The Most Holy Trinity Sunday - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:

If God is one, how can He be three? The most intelligent theologians have racked their brains over the problem, and the most prayerful ones have surrendered to the mystery. How it can be, we can’t explain. But what it means, we can join! Our God is an ever-unfolding relationship. Theologians speak of the immanent and economic Trinity. The Trinity is immanent in the sense that the Persons are close and entirely sufficient within Godself. In other words, God doesn’t require us for God to exist. The word economic is rooted in the Greek word for management of a household or family. The Trinity is economic in the sense that God has invited us to be part of Him. He’s growing the family! We see the dynamic here in today’s Gospel. Jesus says the Spirit "will take from what is mine and declare it to you" and that "everything that the Father has is mine." There is relationship here. Jesus speaks (and is) the word of the Father. The Holy Spirit speaks what He hears from the Son. The Father gives everything to the Son, and the Spirit speaks that inheritance over us. God invites us into the Trinitarian family! The doctrine of the Trinity isn't something to brush off as overwhelming. After all, "the Spirit of truth... will guide you to all truth." This occurs most perfectly in the Church, who protects all that has been revealed by God in Scripture and gradually unpacked in tradition. We can trust the declarations of Her theologians and learn from the lives of Her saints. The Trinity may be a mystery, but, by the grace of God, we can have real truth about who God is and how we can love like Him.

Question of the Week:

In what difficult situation has the Holy Spirit helped you see more clearly? What kind of decision can the Holy Spirit help you with?

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — Men often feel powerless at the whim of societal pressures to allow the mother to end their child’s life, and with no true legal rights for fathers regarding abortion, the ability to advocate for the life of your child seems impossible. Fathers have no right to be notified of their partner’s decision to abort their child nor do they have the right of consent to the abortion. Upholding the rights of fathers to protect their preborn child’s life becomes a crucial stepping-stone to creating a pro-life culture and outlawing abortion. Gender roles provide balance within society, and when the issue of abortion is dominated by its impact on women, we regularly fail to recognize the impact on men. There are countless heartbroken fathers across the country who have to bear a lifetime of grief because their partners chose to abort their unborn child against their will.

Dear Parishioners,

I am grateful that Bishop Trautman was willing and able to come to QW a couple of weekends ago to take Saturday evening Confessions and Mass with you. He enjoys coming here. Almost sliding by without notice this year is the truth that we have 0 ordinations to priesthood this year. Retirements, illnesses, leaves of absence—these continue. But we have no one to replace those priests. When I need help, Bishop Trautman has come. A couple of retirees who, although they live a distance away, have also filled in. But there are other retirees who just cannot make a trip of this length or work an entire weekend. Once in a while, with advance notice, I can get a pastor of a parish in Erie to find coverage for his place so that he can come and spend a weekend in St. Marys. That’s about it. Our only options for help when I am not here. You may be aware of the scramble the Benedictines faced when Fr. Peter Augustine became ill. They have been counting on three monks to cover during his absence. It is not much different for those in the Benedictine community. We are coming perilously close to the need to do things differently in the Catholic Church. Our choices are limited: Fewer parishes? Fewer Masses? Priests that become circuit riders, showing up to do Sacraments but having no roots in the community? Priests from other countries and cultures? Deacons and lay people doing more of the ministry and administration? We only know what the questions are, not what the answers are. As we celebrate the Holy Trinity, that is the Mystery of God, and Corpus Christi next weekend, that is, the Mystery of the Eucharist and the Lord’s presence among us, let us submit to the mystery of a very different future. Or, let us do something about it in the present. Something like prayer and encouragement for all of our young people to live their faith and respond to God’s movement in their lives. Something like volunteering to be part of the mission and ministry of the Church through our parish. Something like figuring out which of the options that are before us that you, the People of God, without favor, humbly in service, fellowship with one another and with all their brothers and sisters in You. For You love them, Lord Jesus, and we love and pray for them in Your name. Amen.

HOLY TRINITY

Today we honor the Holy Trinity with a Feast that helps us reflect on this first mystery and doctrine of our faith. Be attentive to how many times and ways we call upon God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Today we sing, pray, and gesture in various ways to praise the One God, Three Persons, and ask God’s blessings.

HAPPY FATHER’S DAY

This weekend we salute Dad, express our gratitude to him and pray that God blesses him. Thanks, Dad, for all you do for us!

Remember in prayer those who lost their fathers, especially in the past year as well as those fathers who have lost children.

EMMAUS

This week Fr. Jeff joins Bishop Persico and the priests and deacons of our diocese at their annual convocation knows as Emmaus. Please join us for Communion Services or attend Masses that are available elsewhere Tuesday through Friday. Please pray for our clergy and the renewal of our clergy in these difficult times.

EMMAUS PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, hear our prayer for the spiritual renewal of priests. We praise you for giving their ministry to the Church. In these days renew them with the gifts of your Spirit. You once opened the Scriptures to the disciples on the road to Emmaus. Now renew your ordained ministers with the truth and power of your Word. In the Eucharist you gave the Emmaus disciples renewed life and hope. Nourish priests with your own Body and Blood. Help them to imitate in their lives the death and resurrection they celebrate at your altar. Give priests enthusiasm for the Gospel, zeal for the salvation of all, courage in leadership, humility in service, fellowship with one another and with all their brothers and sisters in You. For You love them, Lord Jesus, and we love and pray for them in Your name. Amen.

THE FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Next weekend is the Feast of Corpus Christi. Fr. Eric Vogt, OSB, our native son, will be home to celebrate Mass at 2 pm to mark the 40th anniversary of his ordination to priesthood. Please join us for this celebration.

The reception will take place at Sacred Heart Social Center following Mass. If you wish to attend the social please RSVP freric@stgregorysva.org.

St. Marys and Sacred Heart will be honoring the Eucharist on this Feast at 2 pm. Obviously this is awkward for our community in the sense that we cannot be part of this celebration this year as a parish. But parishioners are welcome to attend the Corpus Christi festivities across town as well.

EASTER DUTY

There seems to be some confusion about the meaning of Easter Duty. In the 21st century, it should not be an issue.

Centuries ago, when people came to church faithfully but refrained from Eucharist, feeling unworthy, the Church made a “law” that one MUST receive Eucharist once a year during the Easter season. To make it even easier, the Church extended the time period to include these two weeks after Pentecost in case one needed even more encouragement. Thankfully today the Church encourages participating in the Eucharist mystery and frequent reception of Eucharist.

The Sacrament of Penance is not attached to Easter Duty unless one needs to celebrate it before receiving. Obviously, it would also be a good idea to celebrate Penance beyond the requirement of when one is in the state of serious sin. The preparation seasons of Advent and Lent are reminders of a minimal approach to this Sacrament, which is available on a regular basis year round.

WOMEN’S CURSILLO

This week our area Cursillistas will be gearing up to host a Women’s Cursillo which begins this Thursday at Elk County Catholic High School; There are about 30 women coming to the weekend, including several parishioners and many others from our area. Most of those working the weekend are likewise parishioners and members of the larger community. Please pray for the candidates and team members to have a blessed and joyous weekend of faith and renewal.
