 The Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ - Cycle C **

 Gospel Summary:

"They all ate and were satisfied." Why read the miracle of the multiplication of the loaves this Sunday? Here we see the mystery of our physical and spiritual realities intermingling. Too often, they can feel separate. When we go to Mass, how often we appear more ordinarily human rather than stretching toward the divine. Perhaps our experience of the Eucharist is fairly mundane. We notice when a new sacramental wine has been selected. We feel the varying textures of the host and wonder if they'll ever bring back the one that tasted distinctly like wheat. As we shuffle up to the front and stride back to our pew, we notice the looks on people's faces and the clothes on their backs. We get distracted by the crying child, the man blowing his nose, and the mechanical sound of the air conditioner kicking in. How human we are, how earth-bound, how material! And how good God is for entering into these self-same realities. How good God is for proclaiming "the kingdom of God," for "heal[ing] those who needed to be cured," for having mercy on a tired and hungry crowd. How many of the crowd noticed what had been done for them? Did they realize their dinner was a miracle? How often do we miss the deeper reality of the Eucharist? Even if in the moment of receiving Communion we don't experience radical ecstasy and don't feel any different, there is a tangible reality to cling to. Our God loves us enough to become bread for us, not only to feed us but to be fed upon by us.

 Question of the Week:

When have you been most blessed and when have you felt a little “broken” in your service to others? Why is it important to keep on giving, even when you are tired?

SPECIAL COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND
On the weekend nearest the Feast of Ss. Peter and Paul we traditionally take up the special collection known as “Peter’s Pence.” Our gift helps Pope Francis serve the world-wide Church and the special needs of God’s people in every corner of the globe. Please do your best next weekend in support of this special collection, using the envelope provided in our packet.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — The media has been working overtime to frame Georgia’s new pro-life legislation, known commonly as the “heartbeat bill,” as harmful to women, instead of what it actually is: protection for unborn children with beating hearts. One of the most striking and effective statements over the years by the pro-life movement has been “Abortion stops a beating heart.”

CORPORATION, FR. ERIC!
Join us this afternoon at 2 pm for a special liturgy as Fr. Eric Vogt, OSB, our native son, celebrates the 40th anniversary of his ordination to priesthood. As you know, he has been serving most recently as Pastor of St. Gregory the Great Church in Virginia Beach after his longstanding pastorate of Sacred Heart. Let us rejoice on this Feast of Corpus Christi with one who brings us the Lord in the Eucharist and his priestly ministry.

SPEAKING OF NATIVE SONS...
Congratulations to Fr. Paul Taylor, OSB, another of our native sons, as he is named the President of St. Vincent College! That’s quite an undertaking, but we pray that Fr. Paul will do a great job! So many QW parishioners and others from St. Marys have ties to St. Vincent - it’s great to have him at the helm.

CONGRATULATIONS!
Skyelyr Rae Bish, our newest parishioner, was recently Baptized, Confirmed and welcomed to First Holy Communion at a special liturgy. Prior to this, Skyelyr celebrated the Rite of Welcome at the Saturday Evening Liturgy. We are proud of her for following the Lord’s call to faith and for choosing QW as her parish home. Skyelyr is a member of the Junior Class at ECCHS. Welcome Skyelyr, and thank you for your example, inspiration, and faith!

THE FEAST OF THE SACRED HEART
As you have once again witnessed, there are feasts that extend beyond the Easter Season. We conclude our most sacred time of the year with Pentecost. Since, we have enjoyed Sunday celebrations dedicated to the Holy Trinity and to Corpus Christi. This Friday, we enjoy the Feast of the Sacred Heart as a final major moment in this special framework. Join us if you are able, here at QW at 7 am or at the other parishes in the area. Let us pray for an appreciation of the Lord’s great love for us and the call to be instruments of that love.

WOMEN’S CURSILLO
As we pray this weekend a Women’s Cursillo is taking place at ECCHS. Several parishioners and many others from our community are among the 30-some women who are participating. Likewise, the team leading the weekend includes parishioners and others from our area. Please pray that they have a great experience of renewal in faith.

YOUTH MINISTRY
After one year among us as our Youth Group Leader and Middle School Catechetical leader, Scott Becker has decided to return to him home in York, PA to pursue other opportunities. Scott did a great job this year and we hate to lose him. He also joined the faculty at ECCHS as a theology teacher. We wish him well in his future endeavors. We are posting the position on our Faith Formation Website and elsewhere in the hopes to identify a new leader before the school year begins. Please pray for Scott, all of our Faith Formation leaders, and all those sharing the faith with our young people.

CORPUS CHRISTI PROCESSION
Today (Sunday, June 23) there will be a Corpus Christi celebration and procession beginning at 2 pm at St. Mary’s Church. All are invited. First Communicants from this year are encouraged to wear their special attire from First Holy Communion as they join in the procession.
