Confessions
Saturday: 4:00-4:50 pm & 7:00-7:20 pm
Thursday before First Friday: 4:00-4:40 pm

Glory be to the Father,
Who by His almighty power and love, created me, making me in the image and likeness of God.
Glory be to the Son,
Who by His Precious Blood delivered me from hell, and opened for me the gates of heaven.
Glory be to the Holy Spirit,
Who has sanctified me through Baptism, and sanctifies me daily through grace.
Glory be to the Three adorable Persons of the Holy Trinity, now and forever.

Amen.

Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday’s Gospel,
Trinity Sunday- Cycle A

Gospel Summary:
"God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." We are used to this profound idea, so used to it that we often glaze over the incredible reality: God the Father has a Son who became man and dwelt among us! Too often we blithely make the sign of the cross in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, without realizing what a radical theology we are announcing. Only Christianity proclaims a triune God. Only Christianity professes that we have one God in three divine persons. Only Christianity declares that the very nature of God is to be relational and literally "personal." Why does this matter? Because we are made in God's image, as the opening chapters of Genesis tell us. We, therefore, are made in the image of this Trinitarian God who is love. We are built to be like this God! Just as God the Father loves God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, we too are called to love one another. In fact, we are not fulfilling our nature and design when we don't. And just as God loved the world (that is, us!) so too we are called to love him in return. We don’t have to embrace this image in which we were made, of course. God gave us freedom so that our love can be real, but this means our choices really matter. We can decide not to reflect God's interpersonal love in the world. We can opt not to return the love that God pours out to each of us. But this can only lead to disappointment in the end. After all, God sent his Son so that "everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life." Ultimately, this means spending eternity in the Trinitarian embrace of love. So why not start now?

Question of the Week:
How could God’s mercy and love for the world be revealed through you this week?

CHILD PROTECTION AND CREATING SAFE ENVIRONMENTS
Online Safety Tips for Parents & Kids: Talk to your children about never, for any reason, agreeing to meet someone face to face that they met online. This could potentially be very dangerous. You simply just don’t know who you are talking to online. Over the course of two years, one social media site removed 90,000 known registered sex offenders off its website. To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to help create safe environments, check out http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm.

NOVA - A ONE DAY PROGRAM FOR RE-MARRIAGE
Openings remain for NOVA, scheduled for June 24. Topics include communication, blending families, etc. To register, call 814-824-1261 or email familyleft@erieRCD.org.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — “Catholics must never abandon the moral requirement to seek full protection for all human life from the moment of conception until natural death.”

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, USCCB
Dear Parishioners,

Since my arrival work has been ongoing on the grounds around the Office and Rectory. We discovered a water drainage issue that led to digging and ditching for drainage. As you may know, the work was extensive. Now, after nearly four months, it is complete. Or, as drainage issues go, we hope so! As most home owners know, water has a way of going where it wants and running its own course. But, with all the best knowledge and work, we believe the problems are solved. I’m grateful for the workers and their “foremen,” the leaders of our parish who oversee our projects and diligently care for our property. It is great to see grass growing, well done landscaping, and finished black top all back in place. Thanks to you, our parishioners, for your patience, and for your generosity. Without our good standing financially, this would have been a real set back. We have not received the bill yet, but it will be a sizeable one, I’m sure. I hope any other projects this year will be minor ones. Probably the biggest issue on the horizon, is the roof of the church, but it appears still good enough not to need immediate attention. In a special way, I want to say “thank you” for the CSA response. That amount pledged beyond our diocesan assessment is so important when things like this come up. And this is something we accomplish together when all of us pitches in. Something else I learned through this project is that our property sits on a spring. It appears like we have done well around our building to send the water in proper directions. But it is something we will always have to watch. Since the house sits at the bottom of the property, it was really important to catch this problem before much more damage would have occurred. Thank you! - - fr jeff

CONGRATULATIONS TO OUR NEWLY ORDAINED PRIESTS!

This past Friday evening, Bishop Persico ordained three priests for our diocese. Fr. David Whiteford, formerly a deacon here at Queen of the World, is joined by Fr. Kyle Seyler, a native of St. Patrick Church, Franklin, and Fr. Sean Kerins, a native of Notre Dame Church, Hermitage. Each will know by this weekend what his first priestly assignment is. Let us rejoice with these young servants of the Lord and pray for them, as well as for those responding to the call to serve the Lord through a vocation of priesthood, diaconate, or religious life.

Join us next weekend at the 10 am Mass as Fr. David Whiteford celebrates a Mass of Thanksgiving here at Queen of the World Church. A reception will follow.

This Sunday, I will be leaving immediately after the last Mass to join Fr. Sean at his Mass of Thanksgiving at Notre Dame Church.

Please pray that all young men and women will be open to the Lord’s direction in their lives of faith.

TRINITY SUNDAY

The Easter season is complete. Yet this weekend and next, the Church give us two additional feasts to celebrate before we return to “Ordinary” Sundays. Today, we honor the first mystery of faith, the Holy Trinity. We rejoice that God has revealed to us in a way we can partially comprehend, yet never fully understand. One god, Three Persons, forever distinct yet forever One. We praise God, as always, for sharing the great mystery of Life with us!

Next weekend we celebrate the mystery of the Eucharist on the Feast of “Corpus Christi,” the Body and Blood of the Lord.

EASTER DUTY

There seems to be some confusion as to what exactly “Easter Duty” means.

Church law “requires” every Catholic to receive Holy Communion once a year. Typically, the expectation is that this would take place during or near the Easter season, though not necessarily. This law comes from centuries ago, when people felt a lack of worthiness to receive Eucharist, the very gift and command of Jesus to “do this” in His memory. So, the Church made a law insisting that Catholics receive Eucharist at least once a year. Today, we don’t necessarily share the same misguided humility that would keep us away from the Sacraments. Most people who attend Mass participate and receive Holy Communion as part of our regular faith practice.

This Law does not apply to the Sacrament of Penance. This Sacrament is required when there is serious enough sin to bring grave harm to our relationship with God and thus preclude us from being in the proper “disposition” to receive Eucharist. It is good to receive the Sacrament more frequently, such as during the seasons of Advent and Lent, and perhaps more regularly as a sign of repentance, forgiveness, and conversion.

As disciples of Jesus, our concern should not be about minimum requirements. Rather, we celebrate Sacraments, pray, and gather as a community to praise God, pray for the grace to do as God wants of us, and give witness to our faith. These are some of the ways we do our part to build up the Kingdom of God on earth and prepare for the Lord’s return.

THURSDAY ADORATION

Remember that on Thursdays, after morning Mass, we have Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament. This makes for great time for quiet prayer before the Lord.

This Thursday, our parish is hosting a diocesan planning meeting. Exposition will conclude at 1 pm. If there is a funeral, Exposition will close before the funeral begins.

This week, then, please come in the morning, and on other Thursdays, throughout the day, to enjoy this opportunity to connect your Sunday Eucharist to your private prayer. Remember that this week we are preparing to celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi.

CURSILLO

This week the Women’s Cursillo to be held at Elk County Catholic High School begins on Thursday. There are several candidates from our area. Please pray for all those attending and working the Cursillo weekend to be refreshed and renewed in the Lord’s grace.
