Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday’s Gospel, Lk 10:1-12.17-20

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:
This Sunday, Jesus reminds us that "the harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." As Catholic disciples, we are the laborers that the Master is sending. All around us are opportunities to share the love and mercy of Jesus Christ - our homes, our workplaces, our neighborhoods, even our faith communities! Lest we feel unequipped for the task, Jesus gives us some advice. "Carry no money bag, no sack, no sandals." We might not have a theology degree or training in public speaking, but that doesn't mean we can't share the Gospel. The power of God is at work in simplicity. The disciples went forth with nothing as a reminder to trust in the Providence of God. Say a little prayer that God will speak through you and has a need for your gifts, just as you are. "Do not move about from one house to another." So much of the life of Jesus was about relationships. He modeled this attitude by journeying with his disciples. Here he makes the same recommendation to them, to remain with the same family for their entire stay in the town. Break bread with others. Invite them to coffee or a game night in your home. Sharing your faith isn't just about saying the right thing, but loving well over time. "The dust of your town that clings to our feet, even that we shake off." Sometimes we want to help someone, but for whatever reason, they don't receive it well. Sometimes people aren't interested in our efforts to invite them deeper into faith. When rejection happens, don't carry it with you. Don't let it over-burden your heart. Rejoice that you share in the mission of Christ, and keep on loving the next person he place in your path!

Question of the Week:
Where do you see the message of Christian faith being rejected in the world today? What is your response to that? What can you do when you are generous with others, and they do not want what you give them?

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament warms, transforms and sustains the hearts of many a pilgrim people looking to rest in Jesus. This is sage counsel and sound spiritual direction. Turn to adoration to lift a personal burden, offer prayers of petitions for others, and pray a rosary or the Liturgy of the Hours while gazing at our Lord. Whatever the reason, as a trophe in the penitential act reminds us: “Lord Jesus, you come in word and sacrament to strengthen us in holiness.” Adoration provides the opportunity for healing, strengthening and a better understanding of how our Lord is speaking to each one of us. Encountering Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament - by simply spending quiet time in prayer or taking purposeful, specific intentions to him - helps us develop and grow in holiness. And holiness is not, and should not be thought of, as exclusive or elusive. The sacred Scriptures remind all believers as children of God, “as he who called you is holy, be holy yourselves in all your conduct; since it is written, ‘You shall be holy, for I am holy’” (1 Pt 1:15-16).

Trust in the direction the Lord takes you. Spending time effectively in eucharistic adoration does not require knowledge of any special way versus another. Reading the Bible, praying a rosary, journaling on spiritual thoughts, delving into the science of the saints or remaining in complete silence with your eyes fixed on the Blessed Sacrament — they all work.

The key is to focus and ponder on the presence of Jesus. He directs your heart, mind and soul, and he can settle the unset- tledness within you. Trust is liberating during adoration as the adorer encounters Jesus - the divine - whether alone or “where two or three are gathered” (Mt 18:20).

Yet, the efficacy of adoration places no limits on numbers, no limits on burdens, no limits on simply being thankful. Jesus told his followers, “Come to me, all who labor and are heavy laden” (Mt 11:28) - placing no limits on giving rest to those who do indeed come to him. That is why each one of us should dedicate a part of our weekly routine in giving time and taking all we care about to the Blessed Sacrament.

Adoration is held here at OW every Thursday after the 7 am Mass until 6:30 pm - with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Make an effort to spend some time in the Presence of the Lord Jesus in the Eucharist. It will change your life!

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — “In plain words: God is our origin, God is our destiny, our companion on the journey. Human life has a dignity and sanctity that cannot be denied, nor can the right to life and invitation to life in its fullness. It’s God’s plan. Human and holy have become inseparable.”
Bishop Robert H. Brom, The Southern Cross

Dear Parishioners,

Let’s continue our reflection on the Eucharist, coming off our celebration of Corpus Christi. I’ve long thought that if “Communism” didn’t give “communal living” a bad name, we wouldn’t object to it so much! This word is so much at the root of our faith - “COMMUNION...” To be one, in union with the Lord and with one another. That is one of the great gifts of Eucharist. It is stunning to realize that the Lord lives within each of us and all of us by His choice. This is already true through the gift of the Holy Spirit. But in Eucharist, He becomes part of the very fabric of our physical - and spiritual being. As He does so with me, He also does so with you, with each of us. Which puts us in “Communion” with one another. This is just another example of how we are never simply individuals in our Catholic faith. We are already and always a family, a community. What reverence we need to show one another as fellow recipients of Eucharist! What work we must do to fulfill what is prayed in every single Eucharistic prayer, that we be made One in Him through the Holy Spirit. The acts of the Apostles recounts for us that from our earliest days, disciples of Jesus got together to pray and support one another, to do Eucharist, and to lay their physical goods at the feed of the leaders of the Church for just distribution to those in need. The Eucharist calls for us to be JUST AND COMMUNAL in our care for all others, especially those in need. Because that’s what Jesus taught us to do! In the feeding of the multitude, one of the lessons is: YOU take care of them! YOU feed them. YOU arrange for them. YOU gather up the fragments for redistribution. YOU work the miracles along with Me now. We heard on Corpus Christi Sunday that the first encounter with a priest in the Bible caused Abram to gift Melchizedek with one tenth of all he had. The Scriptures will go on to reinforce this several times. But, again, we Catholics ignore this Biblical precept. We think whatever we decide to give is sufficient. These days, we don’t trust the Church much more than any other charitable organization to be careful administrators of our charitable offerings. Do we come close to giving the Lord the first fruits, up to 10% of our money, time, or talent? The Eucharist is such a blessing to us. But it can never be ONLY an individual thing. The Lord within us is calling us to so much more... Union with Him and with one another, the Body of Christ. As you enjoy downtime this summer, reflect on the various aspects of this great privilege which is ours. What is it exactly that we “DO... in Memory of Him?” - - - fr jeff

THE HOLIDAY WEEKEND
Most of us are still on holiday weekend, continuing our celebration of our Nation’s Birthday. Enjoy the festivities, celebrating safely. And, as you travel, be safe as well. We welcome anyone who has come home for the holiday weekend as well as any visitors to St. Marys and to QW parish. We are glad you are with us.

DON’T MISS OUT
Several area pastor tell me when they catch up to me that they see you, our parishioners, at Mass on various weekends, particularly those who camp, fish and join families elsewhere in our region. I’m glad to hear that you make Sunday Mass a part of your weekend wherever you go, even as we miss you here at QW.

For those traveling a distance, there are various ways to check Mass schedules for parishes while you’re on the road or at your vacation destination. Really, today, there is little or no excuse for missing Sunday Mass. If it is a hardship to get to Mass because you can’t get there, that’s another story. AND IT IS NOT A SIN... if you have made the effort! Ah, but isn’t that the question???... When in doubt about the availability of Sunday Mass, just GOOGLE!!!

FEAST OF ST. BENEDICT
This Thursday, July 11 is the Feast of St. Benedict. With our Benedictine heritage and with those who remain part of the Benedictine Association, let us honor his memory and offer our prayers to God for his leadership in the Church and his intercession for us. Join us for Mass at 7 am and perhaps for some quiet time before the Lord during Adoration, which follows after Mass until Evening Prayer and Benediction at 6:30 pm.
