Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday’s Gospel, Lk 11:1-13

17th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle C

Gospel Summary:
Are you guilty of spiritual stockpiling? Spiritual stockpiling isn’t an endless rotation of rosaries and novenas. It's accumulating emotional "goods" to meet your needs. Perhaps it's a collection of material objects you treasure. Maybe it's a preoccupation with money. It could also be relationships, making sure there's always enough friends and connections to never really feel alone. It's our tendency to let things add up so that we won't quite need God to fulfill our inner life. Yet in this Sunday's Gospel, we have that inescapable petition from the Our Father. "Give us each day our daily bread." This life isn’t an immediate arrival. And as much as we might try to shore up possessions and pleasures, we know the journey is unpredictable. Give us this day our daily bread implies enough for the next set of steps, but not enough to stockpile. So here's the big question: Do we trust God to give us what we need? After all, "What father among you would hand his son a snake when he asks for a fish?... how much more will the Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?" At the Last Supper, Jesus said he would never leave us orphaned. God will not abandon us. And surely He wouldn't ask us to pray for what He does not intend to give. Of course, sometimes our prayers for daily help can seem to go unanswered. Today's Gospel has advice for that, too. "I tell you... he will give up to him whatever he needs because of his persistence." Our spiritual stockpiling increases our self-reliance and decreases our openness to God's possibilities. Be persistent in your pursuit of God! Trust that He will keep His promises to provide for us, today and always.

Question of the Week:
Have your most recent prayers been prayers of praise, petition or sorrow? Which kind of prayer do you need to practice more often? What are you most thankful for right now?

STUDENTS FOR LIFE PROJECT
The future lies in the heart of the young. It is for this reason that a local group of concerned citizens decided to form a committee and initiate the Students for Life Project. Students for Life is a means for bringing high school students together to be educated on the human rights issue of abortion and to learn to debate the issue in a reasoned and civil manner. It is our young who will shape the culture of the future. The hope is that it will be a culture that embraces life.

The Students for Life Project is hosting a gathering on the morning of Friday, August 9th, beginning at 9 am to bring together any and all from our area who want to learn more about the human rights issue of abortion and the project itself. Community leaders, youth ministers and others who work with high school students, school administrators and staff, pastors, parents, students, pro-life volunteers are all are welcome and encouraged to bring others. Scheduled speakers include U.S. Representative Glenn “GT” Thompson and PA Representative Matt Gabler. Lunch will be served compliments of Life Matters, the parent group of concerned citizens of which the Students for Life Project is a sub-committee. For more info about the project or to make reservations, contact Mary Meyer, 335-8019 or Mary Bea Maloney at 834-3834.

THE CHURCH ROOF

In the winter we were looking at the possibility of needing a new roof on the Church this year. We began the process of studying the needs, deciding what needs to be done, and preparing the bids. At this point, we have decided that the project can wait until next year. This was done for two reasons: first, while it is getting close, it is not yet at a point of severe enough need to be immediate (no leaks yet!). Second, we need to make sure the timeliness of the work coincides with other activities. Namely, we hope this will be a summer project so as not to interfere with children during the school day. The best way to do this was to aim for next summer, by which time the need will also be more pronounced. Thanks for your patience. As always, with the group of people who take responsibility for the care of QW, you can trust that the best decisions are worked out and the best care will continue to be provided. I join you in thanking those who are so dedicated to the watchful care of our parish.

Dear Parishioners,

This will appear to be a little behind schedule, but, as promised, I want to offer my reflections on what I consider a very important anniversary, the 50th anniversary of the first lunar landing, Apollo 11. Yes, I because I was coming of age in those days, it means a lot to me personally. But I believe, like many major moments in life, it speaks to all of us. I direct my first thoughts to our younger parishioners. You were not alive for this great moment, so I hope my enthusiasm for it helps you appreciate it. It may seem like remote history to you, but it is recent history - only 50 years ago. It is critical that all of us learn our history (as the saying goes, we are otherwise doomed to repeat it!) but it is also good to have a keen sense of the nearness of some things. For example, I see some of you wearing a “Clemente” baseball jersey - there’s a great difference having a reverence for someone like Babe Ruth and someone that many of us saw play not too long ago! I also want to remind you that every time you look at your phone, or turn on your computer at school or work, you can thank the brain trust of NASA and the rush to the moon for these technological and scientific advances. The lunar landing on July 20, 1969 was the very first thing ever televised live and around the world simultaneously. Thus, it was the first event and moment when the entire human family was able to witness and understand firsthand the importance of a global event. My final point for this article (that’s right, there will be more to come!) is the essence of the human heart that yearns for discovery. From the beginning, there will be more to come!) is the essence of the mission… " - - new discovery! There is something in the human heart that yearns for discovery. From the beginning of time people explored the earth and the sea, until finally we have plotted it out, for the most part. (This doesn’t mean that we don’t have more to learn about the earth.) But now we also set our sights on an even greater expanse in God’s awesome universe, the world beyond us. We might have dreamed about our place among the solar system, the stars, the universe. But not until our time did we ever really think it was possible to go there! It truly was a tiny step into exploring the unknown all around us. But, if we didn’t get to the moon, we could never have thought it possible to check out other planets and other systems. More and more discoveries about previously unknown galaxies are brought before us now on a regular basis. And, of course, from the point of view of our faith, this yearning and this pull toward discovery comes from the Divine, the Author of all that is. God invites us to learn about the world so that we can have more and more appreciation for its Creator, to offer fitting praise. And, to take the Lord up on the call to take care of the world God has given us. The better we know it, the more prone we are to be in awe, to respect it, and to do all we can to preserve it. - - - fr jeff

MISSION APPEAL THIS WEEKEND

Today welcome Maria Culej, a member of the MISSION DOCTORS ASSOCIATION. Maria will speak to us of the great work Mission Doctors and medical professionals do in service to God’s people in Africa, Asia, Latin America and the Pacific. As they serve the sick and suffering they bring a measure of the Lord’s healing and grace in sharing their Catholic faith. Today we are invited to offer our prayers, encouragement, and financial support.

Every year it is our privilege to welcome someone and some Catholic organization that does the work of the Lord in far away places in great need as part of the “Mission Co-Op” program in our diocese. This opportunity broadens our horizons to see the Church at work in ways we might not otherwise experience through a more global perspective.

Please do your best to respond to our presentation today. The special collection for Mission Doctors will take place immediately after the regular collection. If you did not come prepared today to offer your gift, you may mail it to us at QW or drop it off at the Rectory this week. If using a check, please make it payable to QW and place “Mission Doctors” on the tag line. Let us welcome Maria and thank her for her presence and ministry.

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL 2019

Amount Pledged: $112,333
Received to Date: $ 94,720
Number of Pledges: 406

Thank you to all who participated in this year’s annual appeal. And thanks to those who have made and continue to make payments toward your pledge. Your generosity is appreciated and helps us greatly. This appeal helps us pay our share toward the diocesan regular budget, through which many of our ministry needs are fulfilled here at QW and around the diocese. We are part of a larger Church family, to which we are responsible and from which we greatly benefit. Beyond our diocesan assessment of $105,000, all the money from this appeal stays here at QW to help us in our local ministries and in care of our parish.

To date, 84% of our pledge money has been received. Many of you continue to pay on your monthly or quarterly plan and your faithfulness to the schedule will help us meet our goals.

The 406 pledges represent 43% of our parish registration. We wish more would contribute. But it is also true that this is about “typical” for QW and most parishes of our diocese. Some choose to make their Sacrificial Offering other ways. The aggregate is what matters. When all of us, or at least many of us do our part, we can trust and believe that our responsibilities will be met. When we look at our parish plant, we know how blessed we are to have everything in good shape and well taken care of. This is due, first to those who built and took care of our parish from the beginning and now thanks to all who do their part, financially and personally, to do the maintenance and improvements needed. God bless your generosity.

FIRST FRIDAY

This Friday, Aug. 2nd is First Friday. Join us for Mass at 7 am. Confessions will take place Thursday, Aug. 1st at 4 pm in preparation for First Friday. We will also have Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament throughout the day Thursday, beginning after 7 am Mass and concluding at 6:30 pm with Evening Prayer and Benediction. Please take some time to spend in prayer before the Lord and join us for our brief concluding prayer.

Fr. Jeff and Eucharistic Ministers will be visiting the homebound. Please call the rectory by Tuesday, 834-4701, if someone at home should be added to the list.

ALTAR SERVER PICNIC

Today all the Altar Servers of QW and the parishes of our area, along with their families, are invited to a Picnic taking place at St. Mary’s Church and Convent grounds. Come, join in the fun as we say “thank you” for your important service and ministry to the Church, the Lord, and our faith communities. As we turn toward the new school year we will be inviting new Altar Servers to consider this ministry, from 4th and 5th Grade and upward. We would appreciate your willingness to serve at Mass.
