Prayer for the Protection of Religious Liberty
O God our Creator, from your provident hand we have received our right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. You have called us as your people and given us the right and the duty to worship you, the only true God and your Son, Jesus Christ. We ask you to bless us in our vigilance for the gift of religious liberty. Give us the strength of mind and heart to readily defend our freedoms when they are threatened; give us courage in making our voices heard on behalf of the rights of your Church and the freedom of conscience of all people of faith. We ask this through Christ our Lord Amen

Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday’s Gospel, Mt 10:26-33

Gospel Summary:
"Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid." Can it really be true? Is our heavenly Father actually so aware of us? Does the Creator of the universe pay that much attention to me? Jesus says yes. God knows us far more intimately than we even know ourselves. And so, we have nothing to fear. Being Christian isn’t guaranteed to be easy. More and more even in our own culture, following the faith is being criticized and discouraged in the public square. Privately, we may struggle with the demands of the commandments or the ability to believe when we face the inevitable trials that come our way. But passages like this one in today’s Gospel are a source of tremendous hope and consolation. We are loved beyond measure. We enjoy the care and concern of God in every situation, big and small. Truly we have no need to worry or be anxious because God is in control. For our part, of course, Jesus asks us to trust him and stay faithful. He asks us not to apologize for our faith, especially publicly. "Everyone who acknowledges me before others I will acknowledge before my heavenly Father." When we live our faith with confidence, it’s a way of accepting the power and providence of God. But when we try to hide our faith away because we’re afraid of causing problems, we only damage our relationship with the One who can actually solve them. At the end of the day, the only really serious problem we need to worry about is losing our soul—and that, to be sure, is up to us. As the great French novelist Léon Bloy wrote, "There is only one tragedy in the end: not to have been a saint."

Question of the Week:
When has your faith in Jesus been most seriously tested? What could you do to encourage someone who is feeling hurt?

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM
Highlighting the importance of defending religious freedom, the Fortnight for Fredom takes place June 21—the vigil of the Feasts of St. John Fisher and St. Thomas More—to July 4, Independence Day. Each year dioceses throughout the US observe the Fortnight for Freedom. During this time of prayer, reflection and advocacy, Catholics are encouraged to champion for the protection of our most cherished freedoms set in place by our founding fathers. The theme this year is “Freedom for Mission.” Through following Jesus, we serve as missionary disciples bringing hope, comfort and truth to all people we encounter. When religious freedom is defended and upheld, people of all religious backgrounds are free to live the tenets of their faith without fear or coercion. Please join with Catholics nationwide in recommitting ourselves to supporting and protecting religious liberty in our country and in our world. Prayer resources / information can be found at:

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — “For many years I have been an outspoken advocate for the unborn child, because in a culture of abortion, the child is like a slave. The new civil rights movement of our time is the pro-life movement.”

Dear Parishioners:

This Thursday is the Feast of Ss. Peter and Paul. In the city of Rome, where sacred places are dedicated to each of them, this is a very big occasion. Peter, of course, became the first leader of the Church of Rome. Paul, as best as we know, made it to Rome and there met the fate of martyrdom. It would be fascinating to know the whole story of the relationship between these two apostles, but we’ll have to wait for that. We know they both dedicated their lives to the Lord. We know Jesus loved and called them both to ministry and leadership. We know they agreed on some matters and disagreed on others. Reading “between the lines” of some of the things Paul wrote and is quoted as saying in Acts, we might conclude their disagreements were strong ones. It’s interesting that the Church brings them together for their feast day. It’s that “unity in diversity” thing again. They are a profound example of how we can be for their feast day. It’s that “unity in diversity” thing again. They are a profound example of how we can be different and yet united in Christ, as well as in our goals and purposes. The Church would be far different without either of these two great disciples. In fact, you could make a case that without either one of them, the message and work of Jesus would not have survived and thrived as it has. Both Peter (The Chair of Peter, Feb. 22) and Paul (The Conversion of Paul, Jan. 25) have another feast attached to their name. But this week, we ask the intercession of the two of them together. May their lives and deaths inspire us and guide us to unity in the Church, in our goals and purposes. - - fr jeff

SPECIAL COLLECTION, PETER’S PENCE

Many times people look to the Catholic Church for help. On the world-wide scale, this often entails recovery from a natural disaster or tragedy, help for the poor, or encouraging nations and people who have nowhere else to turn for assistance.

Peter’s Pence Collection is our gift which enables Pope Francis to reach out to others in the name of all of us who share the gospel message and care for God’s people. There is a letter from the Bishop which we have shared with you, and an envelope in our packet. Please be generous in your response to this plea to bring the face of Christ to His People.

FATHER DAVID WHITEFORD

It was great to have Fr. David here with us for Mass. He shared his first assignment with us - it turns out he will be nearby! He will be on the faculty of DuBois Central Catholic High School with his residence at St. Tobias Parish in Brockway.
