Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ - Cycle B

Gospel Summary:
In our modern times, symbols can seem to have lost its value. The most recognizable "signs" are ones we see on the road or the branding in advertisements. The logos for major companies don't do much more than perk our interest or disdain. They surely don't deliver on their promises for our lives to be happier, healthier, and easier. On this feast of Corpus Christi, we hear the account of the Last Supper. This was Passover, an ancient sign of the covenant of Moses. The Hebrew people celebrated God's providential care for His people. To the listening disciples, Jesus makes a very bold claim. "This is my blood of the covenant." At the time of the first Passover -- the redemption of the Hebrew people from slavery to the Egyptians -- the blood of the sacrificial lamb was spread on the lintels of the doorpost. Tomorrow, some of the disciples would witness the blood of the new covenant spread across the wood of the cross. Christ’s Body and Blood are more than a sign. They are a sacrament. In the sacrament, the sign makes real what it signifies. More than ritual, a sacrament enacts truth of the covenantal love of God and His promise of fidelity. It's a promise God keeps. The same bread and wine of that first Holy Thursday liturgy becomes -- throughout the centuries and until the end of time -- the very Body and Blood of Christ. On this feast, we celebrate the unfailing covenantal love of our God. As you partake in the Eucharist today, and next Sunday, and the Sunday after that, remember that you receive neither a meaningless sign nor an empty offer. You receive God Himself, as He fulfills His promise to remain with us always.

Question of the Week:
Do I see the Eucharist as an obligation or as a means of life? What are ways I can prepare to receive Holy Communion?

BE VIGILANT ON CHILD PROTECTION
It is vitally important that we are constantly vigilant concerning the behaviors of those who interact with children. And we must always communicate our concerns to the appropriate parties. Sometimes this means communicating our safety concerns to our children. And sometimes this means communicating our concerns about seemingly inappropriate behavior to those who are in a position to intervene. Parents must also listen carefully to their children and observe both their children’s activities and the behavior of older children and adults who interact with them. When children exhibit dramatic behavioral changes, adults must find out what caused the changes. Being aware of what’s happening with our children means talking to, listening to, and observing them - at every opportunity. To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to help create safe environments, check out the web site: http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm.

PRO-LIFE PERSPECTIVE — “Roe v. Wade cannot stand as the law of this great nation, a nation founded on the self-evident truth that all people are created with an inalienable right to life. We are committed, no matter how long it may take, no matter the sacrifices required, to bringing about a reversal of this tragic Supreme Court decision.”
Archbishop William Levada

SUMMERTIME, WHEN THE LIVING IS EASY…

Welcome to summer! Most of our school children have completed their academic year and have come to summer break. We wish them and all of our families well - have a safe and enjoyable summer. I offer the usual reminder to stay faithful to Sunday Mass, from which we do not take a break - it is our primary way of experiencing the Lord’s grace and help. Remember, too, to include other ways of growing in faith. Pray at home as a family. Stop for a brief visit at Church. Check out our Vacation Bible School. Do a pilgrimage to another church, especially if you are traveling. Read the Bible together. Check out things available on line, especially at FORMED. We have learned through the years that keeping our children’s minds sharp during summer is important. So, they spend some time reading, rehearsing their math skills, attending academic camps, etc. It is all the more important to strengthen their souls and their journey in faith. Mom and dad, and in some cases, grandma and grandpa, that only happens with your encouragement.

FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

Today we have one final special feast to wrap up our Lenten/Easter/Pentecost/And Beyond. We celebrate the Eucharist on Corpus Christi. This great mystery of faith is one of the Lord’s most precious gifts to us - the very gift of Himself in this Sacrament. In our community, we will enjoy the Procession, a longstanding way to honor the Lord and give witness to our Catholic, Eucharistic faith. See the details elsewhere in the bulletin and join us in prayer as a whole community.

ORDINATIONS TO PRIESTHOOD

This Friday evening at 7 pm at St. Peter Cathedral, Erie, Bishop Persico will ordain two young men as priest in service to the Church. Consider making the trip, a pilgrimage to our Mother Church, to join the larger Church at prayer on this festive occasion of the call to priesthood. If your family has never participated in an Ordination Mass, or if it has been a long time, it is a great way to be part of a joyful occasion in faith.

Please pray for our candidates to priesthood: Rev Mr. Ian McElrath and Rev. Mr. Andy Boyd. May the Lord bless them as He calls them to the Sacrament of Holy Orders.

MEN’S CURSILLO PLANNED FOR ST. MARYS

Cursillo is a personal encounter weekend with Christ that is open to men and women 18 years and older.
