Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle B

Gospel Summary:

Christian author C.S. Lewis once wrote that Christianity is not so much about being nice people but in being "new men." We see this contrast in today's Gospel. "Good teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus first answers in the predictable way. Follow the commandments! "Teacher, all of these I have observed from my youth." Perhaps for some of us it's easy to answer this way. "I'm a good person!" he seems to reply. Does he truly follow all the commandments he professes to follow? Does he -- in word and deed -- check off all the boxes of the moral law? Perhaps. Whether he's being honest or fudging the truth, Jesus accepts his answer at face value with compassion. "Jesus, looking at him, loved him." But he's not done yet! Jesus wants to remind us that this attitude alone is not enough. "Go, sell what you have ... then come, follow me." Jesus' invitation to the young man is radical. Abandon everything that gives you any sense of security. Give it all up for an unknown future with a wandering preacher. The Christian life is not easy. "How hard it is to enter the kingdom of God!" It's easier, Jesus says, for a gigantic camel to squeeze itself through a tiny needle's eye. But the God of the universe creates out of nothing, breaks the bars of hell, and raises the dead to life. Is a needle's eye really such an obstacle? Jesus' invitation is always bigger than our own limitations. This week, what do we need to offer up? How is Jesus inviting us to follow him?

Question of the Week:

How can worldly comforts be barriers to my relationship with God? Am I willing to share my favorite item with someone?

Dear Parishioners,

As a child, the stories of saints intrigued me, largely because they seemed so “far off,” from a distant past and from far away places, adding to their “mystique.” Today, I hope the stories of saints intrigue us for different reasons. Since my youth, many saints have been canonized. And many of them are modern examples of faith. Some of them are even so close that you have walked the same places they have! Since Pope John Paul II, there has been an effort to bring saints to us with whom we can relate in very personal ways, so they are not just figures from the distance. Not long ago, for example, we celebrated the feast of St. Francis Xavier Seelos, a Redemptorist who lived in Pittsburgh (maybe he could help the Steelers!). This week, we remember the Jesuits who came to North America and lived in upstate New York. Last week, we prayed with St. John XXIII, the pope of my childhood, and next week we look to the intercession of St. John Paul II. Sainthood is the goal of all of us. Every unique individual, canonized or not, is given gifts to help build up the Reign of Heaven, to further the teachings of Jesus. The Church calendar is full of good examples, including “old timers” and some new names with which we ought to get familiar. There is a saint for every cause and need. We all have personal favorites to whom we turn. It’s helpful that there are great people who can lead us through life through their example and their prayers, much like our loved ones who are still with us. This would be a good time to look up the story of a saint and learn something new about one of your brothers or sisters. Ask them to help you, just like you would count on a friend or relative. You’ll be pleasantly surprised, I believe, by this boost to your spiritual journey. - - - fr jeff

RCIA

RCIA, the process by which people join the Church, prepare for Sacraments of Initiation as adults, or are refreshed in their Catholic faith, continues this Thursday at 7 p.m. in the Rectory Meeting Room (basement). Please join us or bring someone who may be interested in our faith.

PRO-LIFE MONTH AND MONTH OF THE ROSARY

October is a special time for Pro Life efforts. Please see the display in the Church vestibule, pray, and see what you can do to honor, support, and foster Life for all people from the womb to the grave.

We also pray the Rosary during the Month of October in gratitude for Mary’s intercession. Please join us at the times we pray as a parish as well as personally and at home in this great prayer of the Church.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES

Today after the 10 am Mass Fr. Jeff will be meeting with all of our candidates for the Sacrament of Confirmation. We will gather in Church and go from there. If you have chosen your Sponsor, they are encouraged to attend with you. If not, please have one of your parents join us.

ALL SOULS DAY

Our celebration of All Souls Day is coming soon - Friday, Nov. 2nd. In the tradition of the Church, we pray for all the faithful departed on this day in a special way. Here at Queen of the World, we also have the tradition of praying specifically for those who died this past year. Immediate family members should have received a special letter of invitation for this 7 pm liturgy. We will pray by name for members of QW who passed away since last All Souls Day. We also invite you to let us know of any immediate family who may have been buried elsewhere so we can include them. Please let us know by Oct. 29 by calling 834-4701.

TO OUR “RISING SENIORS”

I love this phrase, given to Seniors in High School who are “ascending” toward graduation and life beyond. If you are considering higher education, I encourage you to look at the good Catholic schools available. The tuition may be higher, but much financial help is available, and the aspect of our faith continues to be important on campus. Gannon University is our diocesan university. We also have a great tradition here from our Benedictine roots, so St. Vincent College is another possibility. And, as a graduate of St. Bonaventure, I certainly encourage you to consider attending there. I am happy to write a letter of recommendation for seniors I have known is interested, please call 814-824-1119. Or, you can contact QW Parish Coordinators, Rob & Dee Dee Wortman at 335-6135. Please keep the candidates and team members in your prayers.

CURSILLO NEWS

This coming week (beginning Thursday) there will be a Women’s Cursillo in Harborscreek. To date there are some 15 candidates (none from our area yet). If you or someone you know is interested, please call 814-824-1119. Or, you can contact QW Parish Coordinators, Rob & Dee Dee Wortman at 335-6135. Please keep the candidates and team members in your prayers.
