Gospel Summary & Question of the Week

Read Sunday’s Gospel, Mk 10:35-42

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle B

Gospel Summary:

"What do you wish me to do for you?" Jesus asks a similar question in different Gospel passages, but the request of James and John is not repeated on any other occasion. "Grant that in your glory we may sit one at your right and the other at your left." They ask not for knowledge of God, not for crooked limbs to be straightened nor for the blind to see. They ask for power and authority. Jesus’ response should trouble them. "You do not know what you are asking." “Can you drink the cup that I drink?” Jesus asks. "They said to him, 'We can.'" But what is Christ's cup? Could James and John have possibly known it or understood it here at the height of Jesus' ministry? Jesus' cup is the cup of trial, of difficulty, of public ridicule. His final, thirsting sip occurs as he hangs on the cross. In Christ's kingdom, drinking his cup and participating in his life are not the sharing of power the way we are accustomed. Jesus flips their paradigm. "Whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." The cup of Jesus is the cup of giving oneself. "The Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many," As Christians, how easy it can be to want the acclaim of good deeds, the gratitude for volunteering, the attention for donating to the church. "It shall not be so among you." If you are overlooked, offer thanks to God for imitating Jesus, rather than bitter complaint at someone else's oversight. Look for opportunities to do good needs unnoticed. This week, consider one way you can drink the cup of Jesus!

Question of the Week:

How do I feel when I do something good and I am not acknowledged? Why? Am I willing to help others even if I no one thanks me? Why?

Dear Parishioners,

The “work” of Jesus and the Church fits largely into two categories. We speak of “ministry” as the service of and the care of those who already know Jesus. We spend a great deal of time doing ministry in parish life. Today we give more attention to the other aspect, that of “mission.” The term “mission” expresses reaching out to those who have not yet heard of Jesus or responded to His call. We “evangelize” others by serving them, hoping that our witness will bring them to faith in the Lord. This kind of work is largely done by those who travel to places where the Gospel has yet to be preached. Today we recognize that our support by way of prayer and financial effort lends encouragement and help to those who do the mission work of the Church, especially in official capacities. There are many groups, lay and religious, who continue to do in our own time what was emphasized for several centuries - travel to far away places and bring hope in many forms. But it is also true that you and I can do mission work right here. Most people who live around us and among us have heard of the Lord Jesus. But many have not responded, or, worse yet, have turned away. Perhaps we can see ourselves as missionaries to them, our family, neighbors, and co-workers who do not live the Christian faith. Maybe they just need to be listened to. Maybe they have some basic need or some deep hurt that you can offer to aid. Maybe no one has ever shared with them the difference that a relationship with Jesus makes in life. Have you tried to share your faith in a verbal and sincere manner, putting words on your belief of Jesus? It could very well be that someone out there is waiting to hear your story of how Jesus has revealed Himself in a sense, taking care of ourselves, those already in our neighborhood.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY
On this Mission Sunday, we pray for and remember those who spread the Good News of Jesus to people around the globe, especially in areas and to people most in need. They do this as our name as representatives of the body of Christ. We also make an offering in the second collection to assist these efforts. A portion of this special collection goes directly to our sister diocese, the Yucatan, in Mexico. Let us help spiritually and monetarily, God’s people most in need.

ALL SOULS DAY
In a couple of weeks we will celebrate All Souls Day, Friday, Nov. 2nd. It is the Church’s longstanding tradition to remember all the faithful departed on this special day. It is our parish’s tradition to include a special memorial for those who have lost in the past year. All families in mourning should’ve received an invitation to this liturgy. If you did not, please check with us. We would also pray for any immediate family member who died this past year if you pass on their name to us (834-4701). But I would ask and invite all of our parish family, not just those immediately effected, to join us for Mass at either 7 a.m. or 7 p.m. that day to pray as a Church for those who have gone before us.

SPECIAL DIOCESAN MEETING
This Wednesday, Oct. 24th, our parish will host a regional meeting for our Diocese. The Bishop and his consultants will address a new way of doing Faith Formation. This is part of the Long Range Planning Process for our diocese, which we have been doing now for several years. With this component, the Church hopes to reinvigorate the way we learn and grow in faith - for children and youth, yes, but for all of us. This includes the past couple of generations, which we would all admit have lost the faith and have little knowledge of it. We need to find the structures and means that will help people come to know the Lord and live their Catholic faith, particularly in family life. Many representatives of our parishes will be present. The official meeting begins at 6 pm for anyone who would like to hear what the Bishop and his team have to say. There are things going on prior to that throughout the afternoon and into the evening as well, so you will see some traffic in our neighborhood.

PARISH DAY OF PRAYER
Remember that our parish honors the Lord in the Eucharist with a day of Adoration every Thursday from after morning Mass until 6:30 pm, when we conclude with Evening Prayer and Benediction, two of the great prayers of the Church. Please stop by for some quiet prayer time and consider joining us for the Conclusion of our prayer time.

CURSILLO
As we gather this weekend, we pray for the women on a Cursillo in Harborcreek and for the team assisting them. May the Holy Spirit inspire them this weekend to grow in their faith and willing service to the Lord.

THE PARISH FINANCE COUNCIL meets this Tuesday, Oct. 23rd at 6:30 pm in the Rectory Meeting Room.

RCIA meets this Thursday, Oct. 25th, 7 pm in the Rectory.
