Gospel Summary & Question of the Week
Read Sunday’s Gospel, Mk 10:46-52

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Cycle B

Gospel Summary:
"Son of David, have pity on me!" Has the cry of Bartimaeus ever escaped your lips? Today's Gospel tells the story of a blind man with a difficult lot in life. He made a living by begging coins off passing travelers. When word reaches him that Jesus will be passing by, this is when he begins is shouts for mercy. Jesus hears Bartimaeus’ cry and beckons him forward. “What do you want me to do for you?” Last week, Jesus asked a similar question to James and John. Their response was a clutch for fame. Bartimaeus' response is much humbler. "Lord, I want to see." How strange this interaction must have seemed to the onlookers. The man is blind! Of course he wants to see! But Jesus is always teaching us. By asking us what we want, Jesus reveals the dispositions of our hearts. God already knows them, but do we? By asking James and John to name their ambition, their selfishness is exposed to them and to the other disciples. By asking Bartimaeus to name his longing, his faith is exposed to the entire crowd. Jesus invites participation in our own redemption. He doesn’t save us without us! Take some time in silent prayer today. Place yourself in this story of Bartimaeus. Imagine yourself there on the dusty, crowded roadside. Jesus is calling you! When you stand before him, his focus is on you and you alone. "What do you want me to do for you?" he asks. Search your heart. How would you respond? What part of your heart is Jesus asking you to expose? He has come to heal and to restore. May we, too, be sent! “Go … your faith has saved you.”

Question of the Week:
Do I realize that my gratitude can help others to believe? What do I like about the story of Bartimaeus? Why?

CHILD PROTECTION AND SAFE ENVIRONMENTS...
BULLYING PREVENTION MONTH
Relational bullying is unwarranted, persistent, unwelcome behavior in the form of criticism, isolation, or fabricated allegations that can damage relationships. Examples include social exclusion (“You can’t be with us”), spreading rumors (“Did you hear…?”), and withholding friendship (“I won’t be your friend if you…”). Though relational bullying can often seem ambiguous to outside observers and often garners less attention that physical bullying or verbal bullying, it should not be discounted simply as normal, adolescent behavior. In fact, several recent studies suggest relational bullying is more strongly related to emotional distress and teen depression than any other form of bullying. To see what the Diocese of Erie is doing to help create safe environments, check out their website at http://www.eriercd.org/protectyouth.htm

Dear Parishioners,

How specific is your prayer? Typically, we all “say our prayers,” be they formal, memorized ones or those that come from the heart. I hope you have and can make the time to pray slowly and carefully for specific intentions. Sometimes it seems easier to lump things together and expect the Lord to know what we mean - which, I’m sure, He does. But how much better are those specific prayers that we take the time to verbalize! We pray for family and friends and those who have special need at this time. We might even remember to pray for those who asked for our prayers, and to keep the promises we made when we said to someone, “I will pray for you.” Maybe we even branch out to pray for bigger issues, such as those suffering from natural disasters, war and violence. Or, we take the time to ask the Lord to bring us unity, mercy, and understanding in a world full of diversity, hurt, and imbedded viewpoints. I always appreciate when someone shares with me that, for whatever reason, they have spent time praying for me personally. I know that this great gift has carried me personally, to bring great needs before the Lord, we cannot generalize or rush. We have to take the time to quiet ourselves to remember, to think, to intentionalize. Maybe we can't do it on any given day, but hopefully we get to this kind of thorough prayer. Like any other friendship, we can choose to stay on the surface and be superficial. Or, we can develop, with time, more specific ties with the Lord like we do with those closest to us. As we head into November, it’s as good a time as any to look at our prayer life and see how we might improve it. One of the best ways is to offer more time, more specifics, and so bring more of ourselves to the Lord. “Ask, and you will receive; Seek, and you will find; Knock, and the door shall be opened to you.”

ALL SAINTS AND ALL SOULS

This week we celebrate two important feasts. All Saints Day is Thursday, Nov. 1st, a Holy Day of Obligation for us. Our Masses will be at 7 am, 9 am, and 7 pm. Those coming to the Evening Mass may want to come early enough to join us for Evening Prayer and Benediction at 6:30.

Other Masses in the area include:
Sacred Heart: Vigil 5:15 pm; Nov. 1 - 6:15 am & 12:05 pm.
St. Mary’s Church: Vigil 6:30 pm; Nov. 1 - 8:30 am & 5:30 pm.

Friday, Nov. 2nd is the Feast of All Souls. Though not a day of obligation, it has been the tradition of the Church to gather again on this day for specific prayers for our deceased. Our Masses are at 7 am and 7 pm. We will pray for all the faithful departed with a special remembrance for those who died this past year. At the Evening Mass we will include a special remembrance as well as a light reception. While this is intended for those still in mourning, it is not exclusive, so please join us.

FIRST FRIDAY

Friday is also First Friday. Fr. Jeff and Eucharistic Ministers will be visiting the homebound. Please call the rectory by Tuesday if someone needs to be added to the list, 834-4701.

Confessions will take place Thursday, Nov. 1 at 4 pm. Remember to spend time in prayer before the Lord in the Eucharistic throughout the day Thursday as well.

PRO-LIFE MONTH

As we bring October, our Pro-Life month to its conclusion be sure to know the stand of political candidates on all Life issues as you prepare to vote.

ROSARY

Join us to pray the Rosary at the various times after Masses and in the evenings when we pray together as a parish family. If you are unable to be with us, offer a Rosary in your own prayer or with your family, especially in this month of October.

PRAYERS FOR THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

We will be praying for all the Faithful Departed throughout the month of November. If you turned in an envelope from our packet with an offering, the names of those you memorialize will be near the Altar for the month of November, a reminder for all of us to offer our prayers for them.

CHRISTIAN COUNSELING ASSOC. OF WESTERN PA

Announces the coming of counseling to St. Boniface Church in Nov. 2018. They offer individual counseling for depression, anxiety, marital counseling, parenting and family issues, grief and loss, anger issues, substance abuse, addiction to pornography, children’s therapy, group therapy, psychological/mental health testing, presentations, workshops, and training on many topics. For more info, contact 724/396/1510 or 834/619/0001.

HAPPY HALLOWEEN

We wish our children a Happy Halloween as they enjoy the opportunity to “dress up,” visit friends, and garner some candy! Be safe and enjoy!
